

Presidential Move On Meat Expected By End Of Week

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—Presidential action toward ending the meat shortage was predicted for the week end by some top officials today after an exhaustive cabinet survey of political and economic aspects of the situation.

One official acquainted with the cabinet discussion told a reporter that President Truman may reach a decision tomorrow and possibly go on the radio Sunday night to explain it to the nation.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson told newsmen as he left the White House session with other cabinet members that Mr. Truman "is now considering a decision."

Two proposals were reported receiving chief consideration. They are:

- 1. Lifting or modifying price controls.
- 2. Importing meat from overseas, principally Argentina.

Possible government seizure of cattle or meat supplies was reported definitely out of the window.

Persons familiar with the president's attitude during the hour and a half cabinet session said he inclines now toward modifying price controls, rather than abolishing them altogether.

Longest Cabinet Session
Anderson told reporters on leaving the cabinet session that Mr. Truman obtained the views and suggestions of his entire official family, but that no decision was made on the spot.

It was the longest full-fledged cabinet session of Mr. Truman's administration.

Anderson and other cabinet members would not say whether a statement could be expected from the White House during the day.

"Prefer Pork"

While the president was conferring with his official family, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) issued a statement calling for immediate removal of all price controls on meat.

Taft said the public "prefers pork chops to price control, politics and Democratic Congressmen."

He added that price controls on all other articles should be abolished by next April 1, three months in advance of QPA's scheduled expiration.

Anderson told reporters he is having his department study a petition from the OPA beef advisory committee asking the removal of controls over livestock prices.

U.S. Ready To Join U.N. Move To Aid Greece

By MEL MOST
Paris, Oct. 11 (AP)—The United States told the Peace conference today it was ready to join in any United Nations defense of Greece "if Greece's security is endangered by the acts of an aggressor nation."

The U. S. ambassador to France, Jefferson Caffery, speaking on the peace treaty with Bulgaria, said the United States had consented to leave Bulgaria her present frontier with Greece only because Americans relied upon United Nations safeguards to protect Greece from any attack. "The United States delegation can give full assurance that the United States can be counted upon to act" in accordance with such measures, Caffery told the delegates.

Greek Premier Constantine Tsaldaris, said bitterly in an earlier address that the terms of the treaty with Bulgaria would permit that nation to emerge from her second war against the Allied nations larger and stronger than ever before.

Caffery was answered by Soviet Delegate Andrei Y. Vishinsky, who charged that the United States and Britain had violated an agreement to recognize the Bulgarian government if it included two opposition party leaders. The Russian criticized the United States for calling a special meeting of the Allied Control Council in Sofia to deal with "free elections" in Bulgaria.

Vishinsky gesticulated with such vigor that at one point he knocked over his drinking glass and spilled water on the head of a translator below the rostrum. Amid the laughter—during which U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes, presiding, rapped frequently for order—Vishinsky quipped: "where there is fire there must be water."

Church Of Brethren Plans Rally Day

Rally Day will be observed at the Gettysburg Church of the Brethren this Sunday morning with a fitting program.

The theme for the day will be: "Jesus said, 'Come Unto Me.'" The Church school pupils will share in the program for the Rally Day exercises with the young peoples' choir singing several special songs. Prof. Dale Roth of York Springs will teach the Church school lesson to all the adults. He with Mrs. Roth will also present special music.

The guest speaker for the Rally service will be the Rev. Robert B. Rau of Gettysburg college. Mr. Rau who is assistant of President Hanson of the college came to Gettysburg college in 1933. After graduating from the college and became secretary to President Hanson, and later was made his assistant. Cyrus G. Bucher, chairman of the committee, will preside at the meeting.

A special invitation to attend is being given the members and friends of the Gettysburg church.

St. James Rally Day On Sunday, October 20

The annual Rally Day service at St. James Lutheran Sunday school here will be held Sunday, October 20, instead of next Sunday as was announced incorrectly in Thursday's paper.

Special programs are being planned in all departments of the school for Sunday, October 20. A Monroe Hall, superintendent of St. Mark's Lutheran Sunday school in Williamsport, will be the guest speaker in the adult department and there will be selections by the Business Men's chorus and a flute solo by Miss Lena Hartzell.

Mrs. Martin Sile will speak in the primary department and Robert Cassel will address the young people.

Scouts To Gather Paper, Rain Or Shine

Whether or not the inclement weather continues through Saturday, the Boy Scouts of Troop 78 will conduct their regular paper salvage drive, Troop Committee Chairman Joseph H. Riley announced today.

The scouts are scheduled to meet Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the engine house on East Middle street to begin their tour of every street in the town in order to pick up salvage paper left for them on sidewalks or in basements by local residents.

Those householders who wish the scouts to go to the basements of the homes and pick up the salvage paper were requested to call either Dr. J. H. Riley, phone 448-X or Richard "Bud" Codori, phone 453-W before noon Saturday in order that arrangements may be made.

Hymn Sing Sunday At Methodist Church

Justin Lawrie, minister of music at the Foundry Methodist church in Washington, D. C., will lead in the singing of great hymns of the Christian church Sunday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the Gettysburg Methodist church in the first of a series of Community Fellowship Hour services to be held the second Sunday of each month in the local church.

The program for Sunday evening will be informal in the nature of an old-fashioned hymn sing using such traditional favorites as "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "O For a Thousand Tongues," "He Leadeth Me" and others. Special requests from the audience will be used.

Mr. Lawrie, who appeared before 5,000 in a Methodist hymn festival recently in Constitution hall in Washington, will present several solos including "The Ninety and Nine," "The King's Business" and "Rose of Sharon."

The Gettysburg Business Men's chorus and the church's two choirs will take part in the service to which the public is invited.

OFFICER SEES CRASH, CHASES AND NABS DRIVER

Norman D. Little, 20, Gettysburg R. 5, Thursday pleaded guilty to a charge of hit and run driving and paid a fine of $10 and costs on another charge as a result of an accident that occurred while one member of the local sub-station of state police was within watching distance.

State Policeman Carl F. Renz, who had stopped a truck for checking along the Lincoln highway near Seven Stars Thursday afternoon at 4:40 o'clock, happened to look up along the road.

While he was watching, two cars collided and one continued toward Gettysburg.

Officer Gave Chase
Renz stopped his interrogation of the truck driver, leaped into his car and gave chase.

He stopped Little in Gettysburg and charged him before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehor with failure to yield one half the highway. Little pleaded guilty and paid the fine and costs. Then Renz charged Little before Basehor with hit and run driving. Little again pleaded guilty and posted $500 bail to appear before the Adams county court.

Police said Little hit a car driven by W. Leslie Henderson, Shippensburg. No one was injured and damage totaled $100.

Representatives of chapters from seven colleges and universities were gathered at Gettysburg college today for a two-day regional conference of Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary history society. The conference celebrates the 25th anniversary of the establishment of the society.

This evening the group will hold a 25th anniversary dinner at the Shetter house with Dr. Dunning Idle presiding. Mrs. E. S. Lewars, Seminary Ridge, prominent author, will be the speaker. She will address the group on the writing of the historical novel.

This afternoon the representatives from Muhlenberg, Gettysburg, Lehigh, Bucknell, Upsala, Hofstra and City College of New York were meeting in Weidensall hall on the Gettysburg college campus for a round table discussion led by J. Orin Oliphant of Bucknell university.

Saturday the group will meet for a round-table in the morning followed by a luncheon at the Shetter house and a tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield. Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, who is chairman of the anniversary committee, will direct the tour of the field.

The Phi Alpha Theta was founded in 1921 at the University of Arkansas. The Gettysburg chapter was installed on May 30, 1939.

Charles R. Miller Among 3 Ordained

Charles R. Miller, Gardner, was one of three ordained to the Christian ministry at a session of the 158th convention of the United Brethren conference of the United Brethren church held Thursday afternoon at Otterbein church, York.

The conference voted to hold the annual 159th sessions at Calvary United Brethren church, Lemoynre.

Truck Driver Is Fined After Crash

Ralph W. Stonesifer, Keymer R. 1, Md., paid a fine of $10 and costs this morning on a charge of failure to yield one half of the highway at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Howard G. Blocher, Littlestown.

The charge was laid by State Policeman Charles Downey, of the local sub-station, as a result of an accident September 27 near Littlestown in which eight persons were injured. A charge of aggravated assault and battery, laid at the time of the crash when it was not as yet determined how badly the persons were injured, was dropped by the officer.

Stonesifer was driving a truck loaded with 4 1/2 tons of stone which crashed into a car driven by Samuel Byers, Chicago, Ill., a concessioner at the Taneytown fair. Officer Downey said that Stonesifer's truck was on the wrong side of the road at the time of the crash. Five occupants of the Byers car, including the driver, were hospitalized as a result of the collision.

FBI Arrests Trio For Publishing Bomb Photos

Baltimore, Oct. 11 (AP)—Three men arrested by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents on charges of publishing photographs of the atomic bomb were to be taken before a United States Commissioner here today for arraignment.

Arrest of the three, two former servicemen and a reserve army captain scheduled to report for active duty again tomorrow, was announced in Washington by the Justice Department this morning shortly after formal charges against them were filed with the federal commissioner here.

Fred Hallford, agent in charge of the Federal Bureau of Investigation here, identified the men as:

George Wallace Comer, 23, Belair, Md., former private first class in the Army Air Forces, honorably discharged December 26, 1945.

Miles Frederick Daubenheyer, 26, Belair, Md., former ensign in the U. S. Navy, separated from service July 28, 1946.

Capt. James Barnes Rike, Chattanooga, Tenn., who entered the army on October 19, 1941, commissioned a captain in August, 1944.

Rike, Hallford said, had been once separated from service and was scheduled to return to duty with the army tomorrow at his own request.

The FBI agent said the three men were arrested by federal agents in Baltimore October 9.

LOCAL CHURCH WOMEN ASKED TO FILL KITS

Gettysburg's women today were asked to fill "Kiddie-Kits" to provide warm clothing for children between the ages of one and four who, impoverished by the war in Europe, otherwise would have to face the winter months lacking sufficient clothing.

Mrs. Verna Myers, chairman of the committee of Christian Social Education and Action of the Gettysburg Council of Church Women, today said she had sent to key women in all local churches information on what is to be contained in the "kiddie-kits" and how to pack the kits for shipment overseas. The key women in each church are to supply the church organizations with the details.

The kits are to be part of 500,000 similar outfits to be procured by the Church Women of America for shipment through the Church World Service organization.

New Or Used Clothing

They will contain such things as two suits or dresses, three pairs of pants or panties or a dozen diapers in the kits for the one-year oldsters; three sets of underwear; three sets of nightclothes, mittens, caps, slippers, sweaters, washcloths, blankets, and even a soft toy for the tiny youngsters.

The articles can be new or used. If used they must be clean and in good condition. The donors may put in the kits materials for the dresses or suits and send along sewing materials so that the mothers of the children can make the clothing to fit the youngsters.

All of the kiddie kits donated by the local church women will be consecrated at a service to be held in commemoration of World Community Day which has been tentatively as November 1 in Gettysburg.

Members of Mrs. Myers' committee include Mrs. C. S. Saby, Mrs. G. R. Larkin, Mrs. R. H. Heldt and Miss Margaret Howard.

Women who are interested in aiding in filling the kits or persons with clothes or other articles to donate were asked to contact their local church groups.

$3,668 PAID TO COUNTY FIREMEN RELIEF GROUPS

Auditor General G. Harold Wagner has approved payment of $3,668.17 to firemen's relief fund associations in 21 political subdivisions in Adams county. The payments represent the two per cent tax on the premiums of fire insurance policies written within the political subdivision in which the relief association is located, by companies whose main offices are outside the boundaries of the Commonwealth. The money is forwarded to the treasurer of the municipality, who turns it over to the relief association of the fire company or fire department, paid or volunteer, serving that community, and which is duly recognized by the council, commissioners or supervisors, as the case may be, of the various cities, boroughs and townships.

Monies now being distributed in Adams county represent the insurance tax collected in the year 1944. The municipalities, and the amount each will receive, are:

Boroughs: Abbotstown, $54.19; Arendtsville, $149.32; Benderville, $53.70; Biglerville, $391.56; East Berlin, $100.88; Fairfield, $39.17; Gettysburg, $1,019.23; Littlestown, $324.82; McSherrystown, $235.53; New Oxford, $243.13; York Springs, $22.24.

Townships: Berwick, $70.47; Butler, $104.97; Conewago, $13.32; Cumberland, $58.34; Franklin, $172.77; Germany, $10.66; Hamilton, $30.13; Hamiltonban, $13.40; Highland, $11.49; Huntingdon, $70.06; Lattimore, $92.66; Liberty, $24.13; Menallen, $51.98; Mt. Joy, $25.95; Mt. Pleasant, $29.08; Oxford, $10.40; Reading, $158.85; Straban, $50.09; Tyrone, $23.18; Union, $7.47.

Fire Company Has Trouble With Truck

Some Gettysburg firemen found themselves equipped with a "pushmobile" instead of a service truck when the local company answered the call to the fire at Camp Sharpe Thursday night.

The engines of all trucks at the fire house are started each day to see that they are in running order and the service truck engine started all right earlier, firemen said. However, Thursday night it was found to have a "dead" battery. The firemen pushed the truck to the Adams County Motors company garage and called it a day. The truck was not needed for the fire, with the pumpers, which were in perfect operating shape, able to handle all of the work.

Firemen To Meet At Chambersburg

The annual meeting of the Firemen's Association of Southeastern Pennsylvania will be held Thursday, October 17, at the Franklin Fire Company No. 4 on North Franklin street in Chambersburg.

The afternoon session will convene at 2:30 o'clock and the evening meeting is scheduled for 8 p. m. Officers for the ensuing year are to be elected.

B AND P WOMEN HEAR TALK ON USE OF FLOWERS

An illustrated talk on the "Use of Flowers in the Home" was presented by Miss Mae Kemp, assistant home management specialist from State College, at the regular meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club of Gettysburg Thursday evening at the YWCA.

Miss Kemp, using colored slides to illustrate her talk, showed principles of flower arrangement which she said are "generally accepted as good."

Proportion, formal and informal balance arrangements and the use of figurines for both interest and balance were explained by the State College specialist.

Advice on Flower Arrangement

She said that the present plan in the use of a mass bouquet was that each individual flower be seen. She explained the importance of stem-lengths to achieve this effect. The color and shape of the container has much to do with the success of the bouquet, Miss Kemp said. Generally, she added, flowers should be one and a half times the height of the high container or one and a half times the width of a low container, the color of which in every case should blend with the contents. Larger flowers of darker shades should always be used at the base of the arrangement with the buds and flowers of a lighter shade fringing the edges.

"Above all," Miss Kemp said, "don't crowd flowers." She said that asparagus fern was no longer used as a background for bouquets but that "spikes" were used now, generally. The slides, in addition to many colorful arrangements, included displays of light and dark colored containers and devices which are used in holding flowers in position. Miss Kemp concluded that, the colors of the flowers should be grouped instead of being scattered. Dark flowers should be used in dark containers, while the light shades should be placed in light-colored containers. Miss Kemp was introduced by Miss Mildred Adams, the home economics representative for Adams county. Miss Adams showed the slides during the demonstration. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler presided at the meeting and welcomed the guests, many of whom were friends of the club members.

About fifty persons attended. Mrs. Buehler explained that the program was one of a series of three courses which would be presented to the group from the Extension department at State college. Next month the program will be about clothes.

Following the program, Miss Kemp commented on more than a dozen flower arrangements brought by club members. The most common fault was "too many flowers," Miss Dorothy Andrew, the president of the hostess club, presided at the tea table during the social hour, after the program. Miss Sarah Jane Maust presented piano selections during the assembly. Members of the cabinet and chairmen of the Service committee, Mrs. Anna Bracey and Miss Carolyn Rupp, were hostesses for the meeting.

Littlestown Girl At Fashion School

Miss Catherine Stavely, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stavely, 20 East King street, Littlestown, Pa., has enrolled as a student at the Traphagen School of Fashion, New York, where she will major this winter in Costume Design and Illustration. Interesting plans have been made by the school for field trips, lectures and fashion shows which will augment her course. Her class has been invited to attend a private series of fashion lectures sponsored by Macy's department store, New York, under the supervision of Florence Terhune.

HOSPITAL REPORT

Those admitted as patients to the Warner hospital include Mrs. Milton Panus, Jr., 245 South Washington street; Mrs. Lydia Hoffman, Arendtsville, and Robert Lee, Gettysburg R. 3. Discharges included Mrs. Lawrence Smith and infant son, Charles Arthur, 257 South Washington street; Mrs. Ira J. Cuthall and infant daughter, Joan, Arendtsville; James Bosserman, York Springs R. 1; Mrs. James Ficus and infant daughter, Karen Jean, 263 Springs avenue, and Allen L. Currens, Fairfield R. 1.

FIRE RAZES BUILDING AT CAMP SHARPE

Flames that destroyed a frame barracks-type building at the Gettysburg Labor camp at Camp Sharpe also destroyed $2,500 worth of personal property owned by Lester Clewell, Littlestown, assistant manager of the labor camp.

The fire was discovered by Bahamians stationed at Camp Sharpe about 7:40 o'clock Thursday evening, Samuel G. Sollenberger, who is conducting the investigation for the local National Park office said today.

The Bahamians told Sollenberger they attempted to force the door to the building when they saw the flames with the intention of using fire extinguishers but when they opened the door the heat drove them back before they could use either the extinguishers or barrels of water placed around the camp for use in case of fire.

Other Buildings Saved

Clewell, who with his wife and children has resided in the building since before the labor camp opened last summer, had left the camp with his family shortly before the fire was discovered.

Ellis G. Starnor, local park guard, arrived shortly after the fire was discovered and aided Bahamians in helping save other structures from the mounting flames.

Cause Not Certain

The Gettysburg Fire company was given credit by Sollenberger for saving Barracks No. 4, which was directly south of the flaming building and was threatened by the fire. The firemen turned water from booster tanks on to the barracks which was smoking from the heat and kept it from igniting.

All of the buildings in the camp are of frame construction covered with tarpaper shingles and roof. Sollenberger pointed out that a strong north wind blowing Thursday night might have caused the entire camp to be ignited from the blazing structure.

Cause of the fire was tentatively set as an overheated stove in the building which is heated by two barracks type stoves. The same building was slightly damaged by fire while the camp was being used by the army.

Built For CCC

The first serious fire ever to occur at the camp since it was built for the CCC in November 1933, the conflagration completely destroyed the 28 by 78 foot one-story structure.

There was no insurance on the building, Sollenberger explained, with the structure being of a temporary nature and having actually long outlived the period for which it was built.

Constructed to house the foreman of the CCC camp in 1933 it also was used during the war by soldiers at Camp Sharpe, and then by the German PW camp before being turned over for the labor camp.

BIRTH RATE UP IN GETTYSBURG AREA FOR 1946

The number of births in Gettysburg and four nearby townships continued to increase during September, Ralph C. Geiselman, registrar of vital statistics for the district, announced today.

There were 56 births and 13 deaths in the area during last month, two more births than during August and four less deaths. Gettysburg was credited with most of the births, as well as deaths. Thirty-six male youngsters and 19 females were born in the borough in September while eight males and four females died in Gettysburg. Straban township had one male birth and one male death. There were no births or deaths recorded in Cumberland, Freedom and Highland townships.

Birth Rate Up

For the nine months of this year, 405 births were recorded, 212 of them males and 193 females. Deaths totaled 128, including 67 males and 61 females. Gettysburg recorded 206 male and 182 female births during the nine months and 52 male and 41 female deaths. Cumberland township had three male and three female births, five male and 13 female deaths. Straban's record for the nine months was two male and seven female births, eight male and six female deaths. Freedom township had one male and one female birth and one male and one female death.

There were 64 more births and 24 less deaths over the nine month period this year as compared with the same period during 1945. Gettysburg had 54 more births and four less deaths for the period as compared with last year.

The number of births during last month showed an increase of 14 over the same month last year.

TRouble HAS BEEN BREWING FOR PORTUGAL

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Trouble for the Carmona-Salazar government in Portugal has been growing for several years. The regime has seemed to be almost suspended in mid-air, without the majority support of any of the country's major factions except, possibly, the army. And the most powerful section of the army, the officer group which originally installed Carmona as president in 1926, has been reported disaffected for some time.

The dictatorship has been caught between republican forces, which refer to it as fascist, and the monarchists, which the government has sought for years to hold in reserve for a time when it might be forced to fall back upon them.

The so-called "republican" opposition comes from liberal democrats, socialists, communists, the navy and the army minority, all demanding "liberalism." Monarchist propaganda has been directed less against Premier Salazar than for themselves. As a matter of fact, Don Duarte Nuno, one of the Braganza princes and pretender to the throne, has been protected by Salazar. The monarchists have believed that in the event of the aged Carmona's removal by death or other circumstances, Salazar would reinstate the monarchy. Since the present Portuguese government was modeled after the corporate state founded by Mussolini in Italy, the state would be all set for such a move, by which Salazar could hope to rally the anti-communist forces of the country. The monarchists have been free to spread their propaganda in Portugal, whereas the socialists and other leftist groups have been forced to operate underground.

"Benevolent Dictator"

Salazar has been known as a "benevolent Dictator" despite his repression of leftist activities, and American observers have credited him with doing Portugal more good than any leader of modern times.

He got into trouble in 1936 and there almost was a revolt then, when his government appeared to be leaning toward the fascist forces in the Spanish civil war. He was under widespread attack last year when he ordered "free" elections, which, however, came off so quickly that the opposition groups were unable to organize their forces and refused to participate.

Now he is caught between forces which have been whirling about Portugal all during the war, when the country became a center for plotters representing practically every opposing ideology in Europe.

Dr. Gresh Will Tell Of Church Sessions

The seventeenth Sunday after Trinity will be observed at St. James Lutheran church on Sunday. The pastor, Dr. Ralph R. Gresh, will be back and at the 10:30 service in the morning will address the congregation on the theme "The United Lutheran Church in Cleveland." The four church choirs will participate in the service. The junior choir will offer the anthem "Loving Shepherd," a medieval French melody. The combined choirs will sing "O Saviour Sweet" by Johann Sebastian Bach.

On Sunday evening, at 6:45 o'clock, Prof. Richard B. Shade, minister of music at St. James, will give his second organ recital for the fall season. The numbers to be played include: "Now Let us Sing with Joy" by J. S. Bach; "Berceuse No. 2" by Kierke; and "My Faith Looks Up To Thee" by Matthews. The senior choir will sing the anthem "The Lord Bless You and Keep You" by Lutkin. Doctor Gresh's evening sermon will be on the subject "Fine Living."

Raise Newsprint Ceilings Again

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—OPA today raised manufacturers' ceiling prices for newsprint $10 a ton but refused a decontrol request by newspaper publishers.

The agency said the decontrol request was still under study, but the price increase was granted "to assure that United States publishers will continue to receive maximum possible shipments of newsprint."

The increase, effective today, applies to all newsprint sold for use in the United States, both domestic and imported.

OPA said the new ceiling for standard newsprint delivered to 38 "port" cities will be $84 a ton. Ceilings for deliveries in 10 zones are specified in line with trade practices.

BEAR STEAK FOR JOIN

Warren, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—John Keil today killed a 400-pound black bear—the largest shot here in years. He made the kill while the bear was raiding beehives on his farm at Jackson Run. It was weighed by Game Protector George Norris. Keil's family retained half the meat and the rest was given to a local institution.

Steer Feeders To Meet Next Tuesday

A meeting of the Adams county steer feeders will be held at the court house here next Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock, according to an announcement made today by A. B. C. Williams, Adams county director of the Producers Livestock Co-operative.

Samuel R. Zug, manager of the Lancaster co-operative, will be one of the speakers. Mr. Williams urged that persons interested in securing feeder calves for the 1947 4-H Baby Beef club be present at the meeting.

ENROUTE HOME

Paris, Oct. 11 (AP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor left their Paris apartment at mid-morning today enroute to Calais, where they will take the channel boat to Dover for a visit in England. Following the first visit of the Duchess to England since their marriage nine years ago, the couple may proceed on to the United States and Canada, where the Duke owns a large stock ranch in Alberta, friends said.

Weddings

Keener—Fravel

The marriage of Miss Wilma Fravel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fravel, Maurertown, Va., and Floyd R. Keener, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Floyd Keener, Harrisburg, was solemnized September 25 in St. Matthew's Lutheran church, Harrisburg. The Rev. J. Elmer Leas performed the ceremony.

Miss Vivian Eiseberg was maid of honor and Artyanas Keener was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Keener, a graduate of the Austin high school, Chicago, attended Bethany Biblical seminary, Chicago.

Mr. Keener, a graduate of William Penn high school, is a senior in Gettysburg college, where he is preparing for the ministry. He is vice-president of the Campus Senate, treasurer of the Sages, and an editor of the 1947 Spectrum, the college year book.

Klunk—Decker

Miss Mildred Lorraine Decker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther H. Decker, New Chester, became the bride of Curtis John Klunk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Klunk, Irish town, on Saturday, Sept. 28, at 2:30 o'clock in the rectory of the Conewago chapel. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Cletus Wagnan.

The bride had as her maid of honor Mary Miller. The best man was Harold Lawrence. A dinner was held at the home of the bride immediately following the ceremony for a few relatives. After which the couple left on a wedding trip to Illinois, where they will visit a sister of the bride. They will reside at the home of the bride for the present.

The bride, who attended New Oxford high school, is now employed by the Cannon Shoe company, New Oxford. The bridegroom, a graduate of Delone Catholic high school, is employed by the Livingston Shoe company, New Oxford.

Sheehan, pastor of the Centenary Methodist church, Littlestown, officiating. Interment in Mt. Carmel cemetery, Littlestown. Friends may call this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the Little funeral home.

ARCHBISHOP IS GIVEN 16 YEARS

Zagreb, Yugoslavia, Oct. 11 (AP)—Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac, charged with Axis collaboration, was convicted today on all main points of the indictment against him and was sentenced to 16 years imprisonment at forced labor.

The three-judge people's court of Croatia, which since September 30 had been trying the archbishop, head of the Roman Catholic Church in Yugoslavia, also ordered that all his property should be confiscated and deprived him of all legal rights for five years.

Stepinac was accused of aiding the Axis, the puppet Croatian republic of Dr. Ante Pavelic and the Ustashi terrorist organization.

Erik Lisak, Ustashi colonel, was convicted also and was sentenced to hang. A third defendant, Pavle Gulin, described by the court as a "Ustashi terrorist," will be shot.

In all, 13 men were convicted and were given sentences ranging from six months' imprisonment to death. Three were acquitted.

Lisak, informed of his death sentence shook his fist at the court and shouted in a high-pitched voice: "I will die for Croatia, long live the independent state of Croatia."

The archbishop stood expressionless and looked straight at the court throughout the hour-long reading of the judgment and showed no emotion when his sentence was pronounced. The audience, which had stood throughout the reading, cheered and clapped when the sentences of the archbishop and Lisak were announced.

Walkout Blow To Maritime Efforts

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—A surprise walkout by Eastern and Gulf ship operators all but scuttled government efforts today to settle the 600-ship national maritime tieup which began October 1.

The Maritime Commission and the Labor Department conciliators cast about for a way to rescue the discussions, but a representative of the two-coast negotiating committee said its members had decided not to stay in Washington any longer. He added they would be receptive if the unions wished to resume the talks in New York.

In announcing its withdrawal from the government-sponsored negotiations shortly before last midnight, the committee declared "the positions of the unions make a continuation of negotiations futile."

The main issue is whether the unions should have contract provisions for preferential hiring of their members and maintenance of union membership. The East-Gulf committee had indicated willingness to accept this. The Pacific owners stood fast against it.

Child Breaks Neck In Bureau Drawer

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11 (AP)—Three-year-old Elaine Schelinski, playing hide-and-seek with her stepbrother, 5, thought it would be a good idea to stick her head in the partially-open lower drawer of a bureau.

But she couldn't get her head back out nor could her stepbrother when he found her, though he pulled and tugged mightily.

Elaine's parents finally smashed the drawer to free her—but the little girl already was dead of a broken neck.

Scranton Selected For S.S. Convention

New Castle, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—The 1947 session of the Pennsylvania Sunday School association will be held in Scranton, delegates decided here yesterday.

The convention also authorized moving the association's permanent headquarters from Philadelphia to Harrisburg and named Mrs. Clifford S. Heinz, of Pittsburgh, to represent the group at a World Sunday School convention in London next August.

An election was to be held today to name Dr. Harry Paisley of Philadelphia as new president of the association. He was the only candidate nominated for the office.

Gun Cotton On Sale In Berlin

Berlin, Oct. 11 (AP)—Berlin police warned the public today to beware of cotton being sold in northern Berlin's black market—it's gun cotton and highly explosive.

On the basis of chemical tests, they issued this warning through the press.

"Housewives, beware. Any articles made of this cotton which are brought into proximity with fire can result in explosion and severe injury."

HULL IMPROVES

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—Former Secretary of State Cordell Hull continued to show improvement today and physicians said that he "appears to be out of any immediate danger."

HELD FOR COURT

William Cullison, South Washington street, arrested October 3 on a morals charge, was held for November court following a hearing before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore Thursday night. He has been in jail in lieu of $1,000 bail.

BULLETINS

gers were shaken up but no details were available on injuries.

Rio De Janeiro, Oct. 11 (AP)—A United States military transport plane carrying American nurses crashed today in the Tijuca area of this capital. First reports said eight were killed.

Harrisburg, Oct. 11 (AP)—The State Unemployment Compensation Board of review ruled today that persons thrown out of work at a strike-bound plant through no fault of their own are eligible for immediate jobless benefits and need not wait out a five week penalty period required in industrial disputes.

Fenway Park, Boston, Oct. 11 (AP)—Boston was treated to clear skies and bright sunshine for its final 1946 World Series game today but the 34,000 fans were more concerned with the ability of their Red Sox to recover from the 20-hit pasting the St. Louis Cardinals handed them in the fourth game.

Lisbon, Portugal, Oct. 11 (AP)—Portugal was reported calm today after a short-lived bloodless soldier revolt in the north that led the Salazar government to alert troops and cut telephone communications out of Lisbon.

Omaha, Oct. 11 (AP)—A constitutional amendment to eliminate what he called mid-term elections to the House of Representatives is ready for introduction at the next session of Congress, Senator Hatch (D-NM) announced.

The Hague, Oct. 11 (AP)—Field Marshal Jan Christiaan Smuts, prime minister of South Africa, strongly recommended before the Dutch parliament today that the European states join hands in an economic council as preparation for a political council of Europe.

Chicago, Oct. 11 (AP)—John M. Hanecek, a member of the U. S. delegation to the United Nations Atomic Energy commission, declared today that the American government stands firm for an atomic control treaty enabling early detection and punishment of war-like abuses of nuclear energy.

Rome, Oct. 11 (AP)—Fatalities resulting from Wednesday's fighting between workmen and police here mounted to three today with the death of another workman. The General Confederation of Labor will hold funeral services for the victims Sunday.

Tokyo, Oct. 11 (AP)—Union headquarters said 50,000 coal miners in extreme northern Japan were on strike today and orders were sent to other unions on Honshu and to the south to join the strike. Miners on Hokkaido, northernmost island, were the first to walk out in support of demands for a 25 per cent wage increase, quitting the pits at midnight Thursday.

CHARGES DROPPED

Clayton King, Gettysburg R. D., was released from jail this morning after his wife dropped charges of desertion brought before Justice of the Peace John H. Basehore. He was arrested Thursday by Constable George Hughes.

CARDS' 20-HIT BARRAGE SINKS RED SOX 12-3

By JACK HAND
Boston, Oct. 11 (AP)—Eddie Dyer can face his 46th birthday today with the knowledge that his St. Louis Cardinals rate a solid chance of scoring the sports upset of the year—beating the powerhouse Boston Red Sox in the World Series.

All even in games after their first four meetings with the American league champions the Cardinals now can fall back on their southpaw aces, Howie Pollet and Harry Brecheen.

Twenty four hours ago the shoe was on the other foot and Manager Joe Cronin of the Bostonians had complete control of the situation with Tex Hughson primed to push the Redbirds to the brink of elimination.

That was before the 20-hit barrage the Cards loosened on Big Tex and five successors to send the "experts" digging into the record books. They found that only one other team, the New York Giants in 1921, ever had collected 20 hits in a World Series game. Never before had two teams pooled a total of 29 safe blows as happened yesterday in St. Louis' 12-3 rout of the Sox.

Pollet To Hurl
For today's fifth game and last at Fenway park, Dyer has Pollet ready to go after four days' rest and confident he can succeed where he failed last time on Rudy York's 10th home run in the opening game.

Cronin passed out the word he will use either Mickey Harris, a left hander who lost to Brecheen in the second game, 3-0, or Joe Dobson, a right hander from Durant, Oklahoma, who won 13 and lost seven during the regular season.

No matter who wins the Boston getaway game, Brecheen and Dave (Boo) Ferriss will hurl the sixth game at St. Louis Sunday. If it goes seven, they will take Monday off for selling tickets and play the big one Tuesday.

Although the 35,645 Fenway customers won't agree, yesterday's game in many ways was one of the most interesting of a series that had been dominated by pitching.

Four Get Four Hits
Leading the parade of St. Louis hitters were Rookie Catcher Joe Garagiola and the veterans Enos Slaughter and Whitey Kurowski, each with four hits. Wally Moses of the losers also chipped in with four, joining 22 previous stars in the record books.

George (Red) Munger, husky Cardinal righthander, was in trouble several times yesterday but was able to strong arm his way through with the help of some sparkling defensive play.

For the first time in the series, the outfielding was spectacular. Throws to the plate by Slaughter, Ted Williams and Dom DiMaggio each caught a base runner diving for home. Terry Moore, favoring his swollen left knee, made a tumbling catch of a Rudy York drive in the second that was a classic.

ARMY GETS BIG TEST SATURDAY WITH MICHIGAN

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
New York, Oct. 11 (AP)—College football moves into its fourth weekend in which the fans will get their only chance to draw a definite comparison between the two top teams—Texas and Army.

After a two-year reign as kingpins of the collegiate gridiron world, the Cadets have just been nudged out of the top spot in the national rankings of the Associated Press by the terrific Texans. Unfortunately, the paths of these two juggernauts do not cross this season.

But while Army goes after its 22nd consecutive victory tomorrow in a battle with Michigan which ranks as the top attraction of the day, Texas will be hurling its high-geared offense against Oklahoma, the only team to be met by both the Cadets and the Longhorns during the 1946 campaign.

Two weeks ago, Oklahoma handed the Cadets their worst fright in two years before going down, 21-7. The Sooners held Army to 83 yards on the ground, while making 129 themselves, and 82 yards in the air.

Blanchard Returns
Army coaches have promised that All-America Doc Blanchard, absent since injured in the opener against Villanova, will return to his fullback post against Michigan at Ann Arbor.

Notre Dame, the country's No. 3 team right now, will entertain underdog Purdue in another mid-western headliner while Illinois will be at Indiana, Minnesota at Northwestern and Ohio State at Wisconsin in a trio of Big Nine tilts.

Three games that rate top billing in the east will find Columbia at Yale, Dartmouth at Pennsylvania and Duke at Navy. Other eastern highlights will be Colgate at Cornell, Harvard at Princeton, Penn State at Syracuse, Temple at Pittsburgh, Villanova at Holy Cross, Rutgers at NYU and Rhode Island State at Brown.

A game between UCLA, currently rated No. 5 in the nation, and up-and-coming Stanford at Los Angeles tops the Pacific Coast conference program, in which Southern Cali-

Canners Play At Enola Saturday

Still seeking their initial victory after defeats at the hands of Bolling Springs and Red Lion, the Bigerville high gridders, pictured above, will meet Enola high school Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock on the Enola gridiron. Enola has lost to New Cumberland and last week gained a 6-0 decision over West York.

THREE BULLETS HURT IN DRILL FOR LAFAYETTE

Disaster in the form of three injuries hit the Gettysburg college football squad as it held its final scrimmage Wednesday afternoon in preparation for its game with Lafayette at Easton Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Ross Sachs and Ray Kreider, backs, and Dud Tremble, end, sustained injuries which will probably mean they will not see action against the Leopards.

Coach "Hen" Bream announced today that Charley Rambo will take over the tailback position formerly occupied by Sachs and Kreider for the coming game. Joe Cervino will be at fullback with Dick Constable playing a halfback and Ned Linta at quarterback.

The line will remain the same as a week ago with Howard Cauffman and Leo Krupa at ends; Jim Lewis and Robert Schlegel at tackles; Art Smith and Lester Ginanni, at guards and Mike Rocksandic, center. One bright note in the Bullets news was the announcement that Martin Pavelic, who has a fractured finger on his right hand, may see some action. Bill Hartman and Don Morris, guards, remain on the sidelines due to old injuries.

Impressive Drill
Wednesday's scrimmage was one of the best the Bullets have engaged in this season. The squad looked good in blocking and tackling and general all-around play.

Despite defeats at the hands of Muhlenberg and Penn, the Leopards have been made favorites to upset the Bullets by most sports dopesters.

Lafayette's starters will probably be: Skvoretz or Trickett and Weisel, ends; Dutrey and Zahurak, tackles; Simpson and Hackett, guards; Capt. Saylor center; Mooradian, quarterback; Lolacano and Salm, halfbacks, and Stanczak, fullback.

The Bullet squad of 30 players left this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Bethlehem where they will remain over-night.

London, Oct. 11 (AP)—Prime Minister Atlee entertained Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in No. 10 Downing street last night at a dinner attended by Winston Churchill and 18 other guests, including 10 of Britain's top-ranking military, naval and airforce commanders.

fornia goes to Oregon State, Washington to Washington State and Montana to Oregon.

Other feature games in the west tomorrow will find St. Mary's at California, Colorado at Wyoming, Utah at Brigham Young and Montana State at Utah State.

Two HS Gridders Die Of Injuries

Philadelphia, Oct. 11 (AP)—Two youthful high school football players died within a few hours of each other following practice scrimmage.

William Kenny, 17, St. John high school tackle, succumbed yesterday in Temple University hospital to head injuries suffered in grid practice less than 24 hours after 17-year-old Thomas Regan died in a suburban Germantown drug store. Earlier Regan participated in light scrimmage from which he had asked to be excused because of illness.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
Boston, Oct. 11 (AP)—Now that the Cardinals have squelched that "minor league" talk they've been hearing ever since the all-star game, you can begin looking forward to quite a tussle when the real minors stage their annual get-together in December.

The minors may stage a rebellion against big league domination through the commissioner's office, according to one man who knows his way around the minors, if Judge W. G. Bramham decides to retire as head of the national association. . . . The judge hasn't given any real hint so far, but our informant believes Bramham will step down if the association requests it and that many of the association members believe the guy who led them through hard times deserves a rest at $10,000 per year. . . . The catch is that the big major league "chain gang" operators might get together to handpick a successor. And in that case the judge might get his dander up and refuse to resign, or the numerous small leagues might find a leader who would take them on an entirely independent course.

A FAIR SHAKE

When Bob Margarita showed up at Harvard this fall to take a job as assistant to football coach Dick Harlow, Dick asked how come he had quit pro football. . . . "It was this way," Bob explained. "I got so after a hard scrimmage or rough game, I'd come home at night and shake my head. When it started to rattle, I quit."

BACK BAY BREEZES

When Enos Slaughter clouted that homer for the Cards yesterday, he probably jogged around the bases humming "I've been working for the railroad." . . . Slaughter drove the ball into the stands and he drove several thousand dollars into the coffers of the common carriers. The result of the blow, and the 19 that followed, was that the two clubs and all the camp followers will have to take that long ride to St. Louis again. . . . The day's most obvious crack came when the public address system revealed that Bobby Doerr had retired from the game because he had a severe headache. All the Red Sox must have had a terrible headache by that time. . . . Baseball Commissioner Happy Chandler often says he has lost his rooting privileges, but he can get them back quickly enough when some one mentions the University of Kentucky football team. . . . Apprised of the rumor that he's set to manage the Yanks, Red Rolfe says: "I don't even know what I'm going to do next year, but I hope I can stay in major league baseball."

Maroons Host To Waynesboro Eleven

Gettysburg and Waynesboro high schools, no longer the push-overs they were rated in pre-season forecasts, will clash on the local gridiron tonight at 8 o'clock in what should prove to be a slam-bang tilt from start to finish.

The Maroons eliminated themselves from the "pushover" class by upsetting Hanover last week while Waynesboro's fine exhibition against Carlisle also elevated them from that classification.

Despite a forecast of probable showers a large crowd is expected to attend.

The gates to the field will be opened at 7 o'clock. Officials will be Sammy Angle, Edward Mitchell and John Francella.

PUBLIC SALE

Ferrier Leading In Montgomery Play

Montgomery, Ala., Oct. 11 (AP)—Big Jim Ferrier, the ex-army sergeant who took up professional golf only a year ago, led the way into the second round of the $10,000 Montgomery open today with a record 62 for the first 18 holes of play.

The tall, powerful Chicagoan, already one of the top money winners of the circuit, set a new low mark for the 6,350-yard Beauvoir Country club course with his 10-under-par score, and equalled the record for

BUY RUBBER PLANT

Kobuta, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—Purchase of the Styrene facilities of a huge synthetic rubber plant here for $3,300,000 was announced today by the Koppers company of Pittsburgh, which said it planned to begin operations at the government-built unit on October 15 if the Pittsburgh power strike is over by then. Koppers had operated the Styrene facilities for the government since wartime production of styrene and butadiene ended last December.

a PGA-sponsored meet.

With all his sensational play, however, Ferrier was only one shot ahead of Ky Lafoon. The Orlando, Fla., pro equalled the previous Beauvoir record of 63. Altogether, 28 of the 78 golfers entered in the opening round turned in sub-par cards, and all except five of them were professionals.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
Open Drive to Raise Funds to Build Chapel: The campaign to raise $100,000 for the erection of a chapel at the Lutheran Theological seminary here in the supporting synods of the theological school was launched in the churches of the Adams county conference of the West Pennsylvania synod on Sunday.

Fliers Reach Pacific Coast After 41 Hours: Wenatchee, Wash., Oct. 5 (AP)—First to fly an airplane across the Pacific from Japan to the United States without a stop, Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, American fliers, landed here today.

Leaving Japan after a long flight to obtain permission to make the dangerous hop, Pangborn and Herndon spanned the northern Pacific in 41 hours and 13 minutes, covering about 4,465 miles. Minus landing gear, which they dropped shortly after leaving Japan early Sunday morning, the fliers appeared over this city at 7 a. m., circled a few minutes after dumping gasoline to prevent a possible outbreak of fire and landed the plane on its iron-stripped belly.

Pangborn said they would repair their plane and then fly on to Dallas, Texas, to claim a $25,000 prize offered by Col. W. E. Easterwood, Jr., for a Japan to Dallas flight. Easterwood, however, said they were ineligible, as he intended to fix his own aviators for the prize.

Announces Marriage: Mrs. S. Rachael Wetzel, McKnightstown, has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Agnes Norah Wetzel, to Clair D. Raffensperger, Biglerville Route 2, at Hagerstown on Saturday. The Rev. J. B. Carter officiated.

Senator Morrow Dies at Peak of Long and Busy Career: Englewood, N. J., Oct. 6 (AP)—Senator Dwight W. Morrow died in his sleep Monday at the peak of a career which carried him into international prominence as a financier and diplomat. He was 58 years old.

Change Organists: Mrs. B. F. Snyder, Stevens street, has accepted the position of organist and chorister at Christ Lutheran church, succeeding Mrs. A. Z. Rogers, York street.

WCTU Chapter Elects Officers: At the monthly meeting of the Mary Schick WCTU Thursday evening, the following officers were elected:

President, Miss Carrie Musselman; vice president, Mrs. Laura D. Scott; treasurer, Mrs. H. E. Berkey, and secretary, Mrs. L. L. Sieber.

Action was taken endorsing an Adams county library.

Marriage License: Marriage licenses were issued at the office of W. A. Geiselman, clerk of the courts, Saturday morning to Edwin M. Tribbit, Philadelphia, and Florence Virginia King, of Latimore township, and to Mark Guyon Shanbrook, Straban township, and Elsie Mae Grimm, Heidelberg township, York county.

Estates Best Administered in Bank's Hands: There has never been a single dollar of trust funds of a bank lost as a result of a failure of a bank, Frederick L. Wehr, assistant secretary of the Union Trust company of Baltimore, told stockholders of the First National Bank of Gettysburg at their sixth annual stockholders banquet at Hotel Gettysburg Friday evening.

Edmund W. Thomas, president and executive officer of the First National Bank, acted as toastmaster. More than 125 persons were present at the full-course turkey dinner.

Marriage License: A marriage license was issued at the office of W. A. Geiselman, clerk of the courts, Monday afternoon, to George Dickson, of Rochester, New York, and Edna Elizabeth Spangler, Gettysburg.

Today's Talk

UNBROKEN ROADS
Roads have been wonderful civilizers. First they were mere paths, then widened and later, many of them, paved for highways, leading to cities and to nations. But they have always led to places.

I have in mind, however, the intriguing, unbeaten roads that you come upon in a day's journey, wondering where they go to, and what they mean to human beings. Often I have branched off from main roads to explore these—many of them possible only by foot. On my first visit to Nova Scotia, and Cape Breton Island, I did this. For miles I would drive over rough and rocky roads that would finally bring me to a quaint fishing hut, or group of huts, or just to a boat landing. But always there was interest and discoveries.

Thoreau liked wandering over unbroken roads, and he undoubtedly was the creator of many that now exist. Such roads have a lingering spirit to them. They almost talk to you. Hemmed by great trees, with the pungent smell of the forest about them, and with the wild, though strange sounds that accompany, they recall memories, and challenge the imagination. These winding roads have a story to tell, though it is a silent one.

It is said that many of the streets of Boston were once only cow paths. You think as much as you walk over many of them, losing your way, and returning, again and again, to where you started! But it is the unfamiliar that attract and intrigue. Paths, now roads, that pioneers once broke, clearing the way for human activity. Roads have personality, too. Especially these unbroken ones that once had a purpose, but later only a way to a former somewhere.

This mind of ours is forever sending thoughts through unbeaten, unbroken roads, seeking out truths and solutions to life's problems, forever pioneering to know and to learn. And every once in a while there are cross-roads met, and we have to make a decision as to which road to take. The least travelled, however, has the most romance and poetic possibilities to it. For pure joy and intellectual excitement, this is the one to take. Both for the mind and the legs!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Cheerful Folks."

Just Folks

BOY TRAINING
Don't fill a youngster's head with fears.

Don't mutter, "Can't" at all he tries.

Instruct him in his early years That he has legs and arms and eyes.

A brain to use, and two good ears, And to the heights with these can rise.

Don't sigh at every fall he takes. Don't counsel him: "It's vain to try."

Or sneer at blunders that he makes. Support him, lest his courage die. Say to him when his young heart aches:

"You will do better by and by."

Beware of "Don't" and "Can't" and "No!"

Say: "Try once more! I'm sure you can!"

Don't try to spare him every blow; Disaster follows such a plan.

Encourage him, and he will grow In God's good time to be a man.

Shibe Park, Philadelphia, Oct. 8 (AP)—The "Wild Horse of the Osage," Pepper Martin, collaborated again Wednesday with the "Wild Will of the Pitching Peaks," Bill Hallahan to battle the Athletics, perch victory atop the National league banner and put the Cardinals within one game of the world baseball championship.

The Cardinals romped easily to triumph in the fifth game of the series, 5 to 1, as Hallahan posted his second straight victory over the world champions and Martin continued on the wildest batting rampage in the history of baseball's annual big show.

Personal Mention: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Markley, of Auburn, Maine, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Markley, York street.

Charles Starnes, Gettysburg R. D., has gone to Palo Alto, Calif., where he has matriculated at Stanford university. His brother, John, entered Stanford this fall.

Mrs. Anna C. Plank, Lincoln avenue, will represent the Gettysburg Mothers' club at the state convention of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women in York.

Mrs. Hannah E. Hoshour returned home Saturday morning from a two months' vacation, spent in St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swisher, Howard avenue, spent the week-end at Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

C. Paul Cessna and Dr. Richard A. Arms attended the world's series baseball game in Philadelphia on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarence Sheely, Chambersburg street, have returned from a motor trip to Montreal and Quebec.

Ask Revision Of Preference Practice

Harrisburg, Oct. 11 (AP)—The State Civil Service commission was asked today by the Harrisburg chapter of the American veterans' committee to "revise present practices so that preference for qualified veterans" in all state jobs under civil service "becomes a reality."

The group in a resolution, asked that the civil service commission "take immediate action to hold competitive promotional and open examinations for those veterans who, because of their military duties, were unable to take examinations held during the war."

U.S. Seeks Big Sum From Lord Company

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11 (AP)—The government started action in federal court yesterday to recover $3,490,317, with interest, from the Lord Manufacturing Co., of Erie, under the re-negotiation act.

The action was started by U. S. Attorney Charles F. Uhl on a complaint by the navy price adjustment board, which charged the company with collecting excess profits of $7,674,816 during the fiscal year ended Dec. 31, 1944. The government seeks the balance due after tax credits, plus interest at six per cent per year.

POWER STRIKE LOSING TRADE FOR PITTSBURGH

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11 (AP)—Plagued by a power strike and a hotel strike, neither of which shows any sign of ending soon, Pittsburgh today saw more of its convention trade slipping away from it.

Already church and lay groups which would have brought thousands of visitors to the city have called off meetings here or held them elsewhere.

Three more cancellations bobbed up. The American Society of Training Directors, set for October 17-19, and the Pennsylvania Industrial Bankers Association, October 11 and 12, both moved to nearby New Castle, Pa., while the Pennsylvania Library Association convention, set for October 17-19, was cancelled outright.

"No Progress"

Meanwhile, federal and state conciliators who have been holding a week were about equal in number with the same period of a week ago. Stockers and feeders dominated the day's receipts. Trading in general was active and all interests competed for the day's receipts with an odd local big slaughter showing aggressive-ness in slaughter steer purchasing.

Slaughter steers strong to 25 cents higher than earlier this week. In this division, top price of day $20.50 paid for a load and a truck lot of long-grade, grass-fat arrivals, averaged around 1,040 and 1,230 pounds. Low and average good grassers, in small lots, $18-19, and a few medium grade $15.50-17.

Sheestock fully 25 cents higher than Wednesday. In the beef division top-grade grass-fat, $17-19.25. The bulk of the supply, medium to average-good, $14-17.50, with a few common lightweight heifers of dairy breeding to $11. Good young heifer-type beef cows, $15-16, however the supply rather meager. Medium grade cows largely $11.50-15, with numerous high-yielding individuals, $12.50-14.50. Common cows, cow carrying fat and flesh but aged and "hippy," $10-11. Canners and cutters, $8-9.50, few shelly canners, $7.50.

Bulls fully steady as compared with Wednesday. Both good beef and sausage bulls, $14-16, selling. Cutter, common and medium, $10-13.50, few $14. County outlet for stockers and feeders continued broad and prices on the strong side as compared with earlier this week. Top-good native feeder steers, $17.50-18.50. Medium to average-good cows, a wide range of weights, $15-17.25, and a few common stockers, $13-14.50.

CALVES—Value active and steady with Wednesday. The practical top and popular price, $18.50. Mixed lots of good and choice 120-220-pound vealers, $17.50-18.50. Common and medium, $12-17, and culls around $10, with some underweights to $5.

HOGS—Syrine receipts continued to be very light. Trading in general active as all interests competed for the meager supply. The price unchanged from Wednesday at the ceiling. All barrows, sows and stags, medium to choice, $16.80.

SHEEP—Slaughter lambs active and steady with Wednesday. The practical top and popular price, $21.50. Lenderly sorted lots of good and choice 80-110-pound woolled lambs, $21, mainly $21.50-22.50. Mixed medium and good, $17.50-20.50. Common lambs around $15.50 and lightweight culls, weighing less than 50 pounds, to $10. Slaughter ewes active and steady. Good and choice shorn slaughter ewes with No. 1 pelts, $9.50-10. Common and medium, $8.50-9, and culls to $4.

Students Strike On School Color Change

Yatesboro, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—Approximately 65 students went on strike yesterday at Shannock Valley high school in this Armstrong number of meetings daily with Duquesne Light Company and union negotiators ever since late in September announced:

"No progress—except that we're still holding meetings."

Separate sessions were scheduled today for representatives of the company and the striking independent association of employees of Duquesne Light and associated companies.

The 3,200-member union has been out 18 days in a demand for a 20 per cent pay raise which would boost average hourly pay from $1.18 to $1.41; best company offer to date has been five per cent.

National Labor Relations Board Examiner Arthur Leff listened yesterday to arguments of four unions which seek to control bargaining agency rights for 1,700 of the 3,200 strikers.

There are about 2,000 more licensed physicians in the U. S. today than in 1944.

GUFFEY ASKS PROBE OF GOP 'CORRUPTION'

Philadelphia, Oct. 11 (AP)—U. S. Senator Joseph Guffey has challenged James H. Duff, attorney general of Pennsylvania and a Republican candidate for Governor, to have a grand jury investigate all the graft and corruption charges made against the state administration.

In a testimonial dinner address last night for Paul D'Ortona, Democratic candidate for the state legislature, Guffey asked Duff to "present to the Dauphin county grand jury all the charges of graft and corruption which have been made against the state administration and its political associates, and to which his attention has been directed."

Unanswered Charges
The Senator, who is the Democratic candidate for re-election to the Senate, said these seven charges have never been retracted:

1. "That an attempt was made to bribe the former secretary of highways, John U. Shroyer, to juggle a state highway contract.
2. "That M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman, solicited Mr. Shroyer to have a damage award padded.
3. "That state employees are forced to make political contributions in violation of the anti-racket laws.
4. "That the secretary of Internal Affairs, William Livengood, now a candidate for re-election, was guilty of 'embezzlement of the state's time and facilities, and misappropriation thereof for his own purposes,' in that he is a full-time law school student at the same time he is collecting a $10,000 salary as a state official.
5. "That the same secretary of Internal Affairs, on numerous occasions has padded expense accounts.
6. "That certain employees of the insurance department were guilty of unlawful conduct in connection with the discharge of their duties.
7. "That M. Harvey Taylor enjoys

Catholic Women At Philadelphia

Philadelphia, Oct. 11 (AP)—Approximately 3,000 women from all parts of the country converged on the Quaker City for the opening tonight of the sixth biennial Congress of the Catholic National Laywoman's retreat movement.

The congress, which will continue until Sunday, is sponsored by the Convent of Our Lady of Prouille, the Dominican retreat house at suburban Elkins Park.

Dedicated to Our Lady of Fatima, the congress is conceived as "an effort to help women meet a recent challenge of Pope Pius XII that they become 'restorers of home, family and society.'"

Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, archbishop of Philadelphia, heads a list of participating church dignitaries which includes the most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, archbishop of Boston, the Most Rev. Emmett M. Walsh, bishop of Charleston, S. C.; the Most Rev. Vincent S. Waters, bishop of Raleigh, N. C., and the Most Rev. George Caruana, papal nuncio to Cuba.

Abstract Painting Wins $1,000 Prize

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11 (AP)—An abstract painting by a 25-year-old New Englander won the $1,000 first prize as the Carnegie Institute's 300-canvas exhibition, "painting in the United States, 1946," opened last night.

The winning artist was Karl Knaths, of Princetown, Mass. His painting, entitled "gear," is an abstraction which reduces to its simplest essentials the fishing paraphernalia in which the artist was interested.

Six other prize winners were selected by a jury of artists composed of Vaughn Flannery, Darlington, Md.; Charles Hopkinson, Boston; Franklin C. Watkins, Philadelphia; Homer Saint-Gaudens, director of fine arts at Carnegie institute, was jury chairman.

WHAT FIRST NATIONAL GROUP INDEBTEDNESS INSURANCE IS AND DOES

The First National Bank is offering free life insurance coverage to monthly installment borrowers whose notes qualify under its provisions.

On eligible loans, the plan works like this: If the borrower should die before the loan is paid, the insurance automatically pays the balance outstanding in any amount up to $2,000. No burden of debt is passed on to the borrower's family.

This new Group Indebtedness Life Insurance applies to all but to certain specified types of collateral installment loans. When you get your loan at the First National, ask whether it can be approved for this free insurance.

President Truman Denies Report Of Stockpile Of Atomic Bombs In England

U.S. IS KEEPING ATOMIC BOMBS 'RIGHT AT HOME'

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—This country's atomic bombs are staying right at home, President Truman made clear today.

He officially exploded reports that the United States has armed Britain with a supply of the powerful weapons.

Asked specifically whether there are any atomic bombs "over there," Mr. Truman replied in equally positive terms that there are not.

The queries were prompted by published reports built around speculation that since Britain had shared in the development of the atomic weapon, it had been decided to give her a concrete stake in the finished products.

Hope To Allay Suspicion
Among diplomats it was hoped the President's assertions would help eliminate suspicion abroad that Britain and the United States are "playing partners" in a long-range military alliance, and at the same time ease tension over the future use of atomic energy as a weapon.

Mr. Truman's blunt throw down highlighted a series of questions dealing with foreign policy.

Keeping his replies terse, the President told reporters that he had answered British Prime Minister Attlee's reply to his Palestine appeal but said he would not make it public.

Mr. Truman last week had sent an urgent new request to Attlee for the admission of 100,000 European refugees to Palestine and for a speed-up in settling the Arab-Jewish dispute in the Holy Land.

Deaths Attributed To Power Strike

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11 (AP)—Deaths of a policeman and a 15-year-old boy Wednesday were indirectly attributed to the 17-day-old power strike.

William Flaccus, 55, died in Pittsburgh hospital from a heart attack. Extra duties in the power strike had forced him to walk a beat 12 hours a day the last fortnight.

Burns suffered October 2 when he climbed a power company pole and touched a high tension wire cause the death of Jimmy Cox in South-side hospital. His school was closed because of the strike, so he went hiking and climbing the pole.

Says 70,000,000 Have Poor Vision

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11 (AP)—Declaring 70,000,000 Americans have visual difficulties, Dr. E. F. Richardson, president of the American Optometric association, today asked the national safety council to campaign for lowering the country's "appalling accident rate by improving America's vision."

He asked the council "to study carefully the whole field of accidents accountable to visual defects and carry on the fight to educate America to eliminate this all too large cause of accidents."

Decatur, Ill., (AP)—Glen R. Stewart ran up against the usual problem of finding materials when he started to build his four room house.

But he found a substitute for lumber in ammunition boxes, leftovers from the war. He first planned to use the wood from the boxes but later decided a stronger building would result by leaving the boxes together.

SHOWDOWN ON WAGE-PRICE POLICY NEAR

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—The possibility of a quick showdown on the administration's wage-price controls shaped up today.

Resignations submitted to President Truman by the two industry members of the Wage Stabilization Board may smoke out a government answer on the demands of some business and labor leaders for an immediate end to the federal program.

The resignations on the Chief Executive's desk force the issue of whether the wage board, and thus pay controls, will be continued. If the President decides to accept the resignations and appoint new members, then controls in some form will remain in effect.

May Delay Action
But the Chief Executive may postpone action until he has received recommendations on wage-price policy being drawn up by the advisory board of the Office of War Mobilization and Reconversion.

Mr. Truman called on the board three weeks ago to study the whole problem of wage and price stabilization. He said at the same time, amid cries that the wage board should be scrapped, that it would continue in existence.

A member of the OWMR board told a reporter that industry, labor, agriculture and public members of the panel are in agreement that all controls—over wages, prices and scarce materials—"should go as quickly as possible."

But he added that there is no

Wife Convicted As Murder 'Accessory'

Tunkhannock, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—A jury of 10 men and two women Thursday convicted attractive Mrs. Florence Randall of accessory charges in the slaying of her boat concessionaire husband.

The verdict was reached at 3:45 a. m., and reported to Wyoming county court five hours later. The misdemeanor charge carries a maximum penalty of $2,000 fine and two years imprisonment.

It was the second trial for the 37-year-old widow. She also was convicted at the first hearing but won a new trial. Kenneth Ferrell, 31-year-old lumberjack, is serving a life sentence for the slaying.

The prosecution charged at Ferrell's trial that he was driven by "an all consuming evil passion" for the auburn-haired Mrs. Randall.

RECONSIDERATION

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 11 (AP)—The Tacoma Athletic Commission members want their—ah, er—well, they want it back.

A year ago the commission heard that Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York was lamenting his inability to find a seat for a bathroom fixture in the executive mansion.

The commission sent him one post haste.

Now they are building new quarters in Tacoma and can't find one for their own plumbing.

Please, they entreat Mr. Dewey, send it back — and the piece it's attached to, also.

such agreement "as to when and how they should be removed. I think the consensus of opinion is," the board member said, "that you can't throw controls out of the window right away and all at once."

MARTIN PUTS MEAT BLAME ON DEMOCRATS

Butler, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—Governor Martin Wednesday blamed "Fuzzy-minded Democratic bureaucrats" for "driving many of our butchers out of business," and declared "we cannot get meat for our tables because the regulations which control the meat business are made and enforced by men who are completely ignorant of the situation."

The Republican nominee for the U. S. Senate asserted there are 52,000,000 head of cattle in the country and added: "Packers inform me that this would supply everyone in America with one pound of steak a day for 84 days."

"Anyone raised on a farm knows that all this vast amount of stock is being raised to sell," the governor said. "The farmer isn't going to keep it but he wants a favorable market. That is only natural; but he must have the right to deal in a free market, not a black market."

In a radio broadcast, Attorney General James H. Duff, GOP nominee for governor, laid shortages to the door of "bureaucrats in Washington" who he said were "creating artificial shortages in America and throwing the whole system of supply and demand out of balance."

In a political rally at Waynesburg, Democratic Senator Joseph F. Guffey who is seeking his third term in opposition to Martin, said the governor "is a faithful follower of Joe Grundy (Republican leader and Bristol manufacturer.)"

Guffey declared Martin "reflects the Grundy party line which has always opposed anything representing

BIG BUDGET FOR SNOW REMOVAL

Harrisburg, Oct. 11 (AP)—The commonwealth will tackle Pennsylvania's highway snow removal problem this winter with a record-breaking $5,896,160 to be spent for clearing more than 20,000 miles of roads.

Between 2,000 and 3,000 plows will be available together with more than 250 power graders in the state highways department annual battle to keep snow-clogged roads open for travel.

The department announced it has purchased 10 new rotary snow plows to augment 22 other units which have already seen service. Additionally, hundreds of trucks will be equipped with "V" type plows with hydraulic wings on both sides.

While unable to purchase new snow fence for the coming winter, the department estimated it still has nearly 13,000,000 feet of serviceable fence for erection before the snow falls.

This year's snow clearance mileage has been increased by 101 over that of last year with the recent acquisition by the state of additional county roads. Last year's snow removal problem cost the taxpayers $4,787,828.

progressive government."

The Democratic candidate for governor, John S. Rice, said the Republican state administration is "collecting more in taxes and giving less in services than any administration in the history of the commonwealth."

"Let no businessman, let no one interested in governmental economy and efficiency, think that Republican government is cheap. It's the most expensive government that is," he said.

Mrs. Truman Going To Wallace Wedding

Washington, Oct. 11 (AP)—President Truman said that he will be unable to attend the wedding of Henry A. Wallace's daughter, Jean, here tomorrow to Leslie Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roy Douglas of Enoy Valley, Pa., but will be represented by his wife.

Wallace was dismissed recently as commerce secretary after a controversy with Secretary of State James Byrnes over American foreign policy.

Lutherans Going To Philadelphia

Cleveland, Oct. 11 (AP)—For the first time in its history the United Lutheran Church in America will return to a former convention city when it holds its next conclave in Philadelphia in 1948.

In selecting the convention site yesterday, delegates to the 15th biennial convention of the church here said the Ministerium of Pennsylvania will observe the 200th anniversary of the organization of the first Lutheran synod in America in 1948.

Nona Diehl, of Philadelphia, executive secretary of the Women's Missionary society of the ULCA reported the society will send 15 young women of the church as missionaries in all parts of the world for a period of three years.

Women missionaries assigned included Mariana Bunker, Lewisburg, Pa., and Ruth Kepple, Leechburg, Pa., both of whom will go to Liberia.

Pongee, a plain-weave fabric made entirely of tussah or wild silk, originated with the Chinese in ancient times.

PRODUCTION OF SOFT COAL UP

Harrisburg, Oct. 11 (AP)—Pennsylvania soft coal production of 13,158,000 tons in August—before meat controls were restored—exceeded that for any month of 1945 and was bettered only in March of this year, the State Mines Department reported Thursday.

Joseph J. Walsh, deputy mines secretary, said totals for bituminous production in September have not been completed and that the department has no information on what effect, if any, the reported meat shortage has had on state mine production.

John L. Lewis, head of the AFL-United Mine Workers, recently urged the federal government to drop meat control because he said the inability of miners to get meat was affecting production.

Walsh noted that the August production compared with 10,968,000 tons mined in August of 1945 and the 12,483,000 tons of bituminous dug last July and the 11,629,000 in June before the original OPA meat regulations expired June 30.

He attributed the increase, however, to a gain in strip mining or surface operations and the return of "a lot of men" who were in the armed forces to old jobs in the mines.

In the hard coal fields, Walsh noted 5,146,000 tons were mined in September as compared with 5,420,000 in August and 5,048,000 in July. This production compared with the 4,738,000 mined in July of 1945; 4,596,000 in August, and 4,684,000 in September.

Rhubarb was introduced into western Europe from Russia in the 16th century.

ADAMS COUNTY'S NATIVE SON

JOHN S. RICE

ENROLLMENT AT EXTRA COLLEGE CENTERS LOW

Harrisburg, Oct. 11 (AP)—Unparalleled expansion of existing college facilities has sharply reduced Pennsylvania's area college center program designed to accommodate the postwar overflow of education-hungry young boys and girls.

Instead of establishing 15 centers for a possible 12,000 college students as originally planned, educators next month will open the doors of 10 of the unique schools for an estimated 5,000 applicants.

"We're thankful that the regular colleges took up the slack and they've done a magnificent job," said Dr. Robert McC. Steele, state coordinator of the program conceived by Governor Martin after abandonment of a proposal to use the nearby Indian town Gap Military Reservation to house an emergency GI college.

Two Start October 26
Two of the proposed centers—one at Harrisburg and the other at Lancaster—commence operations next Tuesday, but October 26 has been set as the opening date for the other eight centers because of difficulties in setting up facilities.

Three of these are in Philadelphia and others are in Chester, Pittsburgh, Charleroi, McKeesport and Vandergrift.

To point up the cooperation received by established colleges in expanding, he cited the current enrollment of 1,700 at the University of Scranton, compared to the pre-war average of 200, and of the post-war 1,000 at Bucknell junior college in Wilkes-Barre in comparison with 400 students prior to the war.

"And we're having no special difficulty in finding teaching personnel," he told a reporter, "because we're using part-time teachers."

He estimated about 700 teachers will handle the job.

Warns Of Federal Control Of Schools

Bedford, Pa., Oct. 11 (AP)—Governor Martin said today "a centrally controlled educational system" aided by federal funds would lead to "unscrupulous administrators" using the schools for propaganda purposes.

Such a system, he said in a prepared address at a Republican rally, would be "infeasible" and "tend toward a uniformity which has been contrary to our conception of education in the United States."

"There has been a tendency in recent years for the federal government to subsidize particular phases of education," he added "... should

BE SURE You Get All The Heating Comfort You Pay For

Our FUEL oil deliveries are fully error proofed, with Verified-Meter Printed Delivery Receipts. We have always made this possible by having our delivery trucks equipped with BRODIE AUTOMATIC RECORDING METERS, which assure accurate measurements and regulate delivery of exact gallonage you order. This feature gives positive protection to all of our customers.

The driver sets the meter for the quantity of fuel oil you desire, and the meter does the rest. It automatically shuts off when the exact number of gallons goes through the meter. It then prints the total gallonage on your receipt, which is either given to you or left under your door if you are away.

It has always been our policy to give our customers "THE BEST" in finest grades of TEXACO Fuel Oil and Petroleum Products and "THE BEST" of equipment to serve you.

Our representative will be pleased to call at your residence or office and explain our complete service. Feel free to call us at any time.

Boy Scouts Plan Week-End Hikes

Twenty-eight members of the Littlestown Boy Scout troop visited the John Eiker museum south of Fairfield, near Middle creek Saturday. The owner, who used to travel in the southwest, has an interesting collection of Indian relics, including some from the Cliff Dwellers. The scouts also visited the site of an old Indian town along Middle Creek, and viewed a place in the rocks they used for grinding corn. Several boys found arrowheads. The scouts were accompanied by Alton C. Bowers, scoutmaster; Wilbur Mackley, assistant scoutmaster; James Wehler, junior assistant scoutmaster; and Luther D. Snyder, member of the scout committee.

The week-end of October 19-20, the scouts will take another hike on the Appalachian Trail. They will start at Pine Grove Furnace, and go about half way to Marysville. On the first Saturday in November, the boys will hike down Alloway's creek, beginning at the source on the John Kindig farm, and ending on the A. W. Schott farm near the Maryland line.

SPORTSMEN PLAN BANQUET IN NOVEMBER

A largely attended meeting of the Littlestown Fish and Game association was held Wednesday evening in the fire engine house. W. E. Stites presided.

Melvin B. Wehler and Karl P. Bankert gave an account of a recent moose-hunting trip which they and Wilbur A. Bankert took to Canada. W. E. Stites reported on the recent week-end field meet held at the Pennsylvania Game Commission's Training School at Brockway, Pa. Mr. Stites was accompanied by Charles Morehead, Ernest Renner, E. H. DeGroft, and Richard Knipple.

Work On Dam Progressing
The committee in charge of repairing Baughman's dam reported the work half finished. Members are asked to report at the dam on Saturday to help complete the work. The shooting match previously planned was canceled.

The annual rabbit banquet will be held in November, it was decided. The banquet committee is composed of Edgar Wolfe, Charles Lemmon, Stanley Weikert, Stanley Harner, Raymond Spangler, Milton Harner, Roscoe Rittage, Walter Myers, and Raymond Reinman. The entertainment committee will be Karl P. Bankert, Walter B. Crouse, Herman Kaler, Ernest Renner, Edgar DeGroft, and Charles W. Snyder.

Plans were made to give prizes to persons shooting pheasants having certain numbers on leg bands put on birds recently released by the association. A turkey was awarded to Fred Blocher, Harold Krichen, and Mrs. James Duttera. Refreshments were served following the business meeting.

Community Building Plans Take Shape

Plans are rapidly taking shape for the erection of a community building in Littlestown. Both the Lions club and the Rotary club, at their last meeting, discussed this matter seriously, and various lodges of the town, as well as other organizations, and individuals, have favorably discussed it. The need for such a building has long been felt. It would furnish a place for a youth center, and a place for the meetings and activities of the various clubs and societies in the town.

The shortage of materials and equipment has not been overlooked, but it is felt that the laying of plans now will facilitate matters later on, when the green light is received for the construction of new buildings of this type.

A Halloween social will be held in Redeemer's Reformed social hall Tuesday, October 29, at 7 p. m., sponsored by the Primary and Beginners' departments. A bake sale will also be held. The public is invited to attend this affair.

ALLEN INSTALLS NEW OFFICERS OF LEGION POST

Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, Littlestown, held the annual installation of officers Thursday evening in the post home. The ceremony was conducted by Past District Commander Jerry Allen, superintendent of the Scotland school, assisted by District Adjutant Mowrey, Chambersburg.

The officers installed were: Commander, Francis J. Will; first vice commander, Lewis H. Fox; second vice commander, Stewart Long; adjutant, Mark Frazer; chaplain, Joseph P. Long; historian, Clarence J. Krichen, Jr.; sergeant-at-arms, Kenneth Steick; finance officer, Robert J. Sell; and Trustee, Clarence J. Krichen, Sr.

Name Committees
Commander Will appointed the following committees to serve during the coming year:

House committee: Wilbur Mackley, chairman; James Fager and Charles B. Mummert;
Social committee: Clarence J. Krichen, Jr., and George Hornberger;

Committee to arrange for the annual Armistice service, to be held Sunday, November 10: Robert J. Sell and Theron Basehoar, Jr.;
Annual turkey committee: Clarence J. Krichen, Sr., Luther Hankney and Monroe Morelock.

VFW Will Sponsor Dance And Parties

The Littlestown post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will sponsor a Halloween dance, and also a New Year's Eve dance, if tentative plans discussed at the last meeting materialize. Meetings are now held weekly by the post, and all members are urged to attend to help transact important business which will be up for discussion in the near future.

Friday night parties will begin tonight, and a Ladies' Auxiliary will be organized in the near future. A profit of $1,024.75 was realized from the Chevrolet given away at a public dance September 27.

Littlestown News Notes

Littlestown News Notes

The Woman's Community club of Littlestown and vicinity will meet Wednesday evening in the P.O.S. of A. hall. Each member may bring her children, or other guest. A Halloween party will be held, and the committee in charge asks all to come masked.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Randall, Lombard street, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Catharine Elizabeth, to Donald J. Eisenhart, York. The wedding will take place Saturday, October 19, at 9 a. m., in St. Aloysius' Catholic church, Littlestown.

The Littlestown State bank, the Littlestown National bank, and the State Liquor store, will be closed Saturday in observance of Columbus Day.

The Loyalty Sunday school class of St. Paul's Lutheran church, taught by Mrs. Carl Baumgardner, will meet Monday evening, October 21, instead of October 14, as previously announced. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Ray Reindollar.

Rudolph Garland, who was stricken weeks ago with polio, spent this week at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Garland. He will resume his studies at West Chester State Teachers' college.

A new intermediate girl scout troop, to be known as Troop No. 5, will be organized next Thursday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, in the basement of the National bank building. Miss Hildah Duttera is the leader. This group includes ages ten to thirteen. All girls wishing to join the new troop are asked to attend Thursday's meeting.

Attorney and Mrs. J. Marker Dorn, Richmond, Va., spent the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dorn. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hare, daughters, Margaret and Louise, Littlestown, were week-end guests at the home of the former's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Lawrence. They were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. Hare's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hare, and aunt, Miss Annie Altoff.

Miss Grace Kindig, Miss Lydia Sentz, and Mrs. Dean Stover were received into membership at the meeting of the Abigail Missionary society Monday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sentz, Princeville, Ill., have been visiting relatives and friends in Littlestown and vicinity.

The Ladies' Aid society of St. John's Lutheran church will sponsor a Tom Brenneman show in the social hall of the church on October 31. All good neighbor letters must be in by October 28, and may be left at Kechner's grocery or at the home of Mrs. William Lippy.

Ever-Ready Class Meets At Parsonage

The Ever-ready Sunday school class of St. John's Lutheran church held its monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the parsonage with Mrs. Kenneth D. James, the class teacher. Mrs. Theron Bair presided. The meeting was opened with the singing of two hymns, followed by the scripture lesson by Mrs. James. Sentence prayers by the group were followed by readings by Mrs. Wilson Green, Mrs. William Sheets, and Mrs. Albert Starnier.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. A social hour was held, when games were played by the group, and refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Theron Bair, near town.

The Story Of Andrew Schreiber (Shriver) Early Town Settler

"You can't kill a good German." Andrew's grin nearly filled what had once been a stoutish face. Now all that remained was the flesh hanging from the bones. The sides of his cheeks made long jowls and he was white and still weak.

There had been nearly two weeks during which his daughters had frequently given up all hope for their father, but Ann had remained steadfast in her belief that her husband would live and her faith was rewarded.

Now that the brewer was joking once more they knew that it would not be long until he was, once again, his usual self. But the heavy fat that had characterized him when he had gone marching off to war was gone. The steadiness of his hands had been lost and his hands had become clawlike from the long trip home and the illness that followed. Now his hands shook as he tried to raise a cup to his mouth and the milk spilled from it, tumbling down over his matted beard.

Good News From Trenton

Ann wiped away the moisture and then helped him steady himself. Andrew grinned again, saying: "Once it was the youngsters, now it is me."

The good news that came from Trenton after Christmas, of how Washington had crossed the Delaware and defeated the Hessians came on the day Andrew finally was able to get up from his bunk. He told Ann:

"The news is better than a tonic. I feel 30 years younger." All that day he was in good humor, cheered by the victory.

Andrew's progress toward health continued throughout the winter. He began to fill in again some of the fat that had been wiped away by the illness.

Visits From Comrades

He was cheered by visits from some of the men who had fought in the Revolution and who were home, after having served their terms.

James Clark visited and told Andrew of how he had fought with Captain Michael Doudel's outfit at Bunker Hill back in 1775.

"We organized at Samuel Gettys' tavern," Clark recalled, "And a great day it was too, toward the end of June. Gettys stood us drinks which was all right by us, and probably all right by Gettys, there were enough to buy before he stood a round."

"We got to Boston toward the end of July. On the 29th John McCurtub came back to report that the British had cut down some big trees and had been busy all night throwing up a line at the foot of Bunker hill."

Bunker Hill Incident

"Along towards evening we got orders to march down to our advanced post on Charlestown Neck in order to try to surround the enemy's advance guard and bring off some prisoners so we could find out what the British were trying to do."

"Captain Doudel took 39 men and they crept on their hands and knees off the right of Bunker Hill and finally got to the rear of the enemy without being discovered."

"I was with the 40 under Lieutenant Menry Miller. We crept silent as the tomb except for a couple times when somebody hit a twig and when it broke it sounded like the clasp of Gabriel's trumpet on doomsday. We'd freeze and our hearts would come up into our mouths and pound out loud there. But we were lucky most of the way and nobody heard us. We were just a few yards from the enemy division when a company came down hill to relieve the guard and crossed our rifles. We were stretched out Indian file in the grass and they never saw us until they were about twenty

Dark Days

"Well, they fired and we returned the compliment, killed a couple of 'em and grabbed a couple more and then ran for all we were worth. When we got back to the line most of us were still laughing from the expression on the Britishers' faces when they first saw us back where everything was supposed to be peace and quiet. We lost Corporal Walter Crouse on the deal, but since then I've learned he was captured and taken prisoner."

Andrew heard too of what had happened at Fort Washington, and that story did not bring him much pleasure.

Zachariah Schmeiser had dropped around to see Andrew along toward the end of February.

The weather was still bitter cold and it seemed the bitterest winter either had ever known. They talked, sadly, of the news from Valley Forge. The men were deserting swiftly they heard, and those who did not desert were dying. The men had no shoes, little food and not much hope. But a few hundred were in the camp. Andrew had heard only once from his sons, who were at the camp, and that one was not particularly happy. Young Andrew, he heard, had the dysentery, the others were weak and suffering from the weather, and had little food. He sent food with men going that way, but had no way of knowing whether it ever arrived.

Schmeiser had been near Fort Washington, hidden away with a small company that had lost itself and thus escaped from the carnage that had enveloped the fort when Andrew watched from the Jersey shore. Later he had talked with men who had been prisoners and were exchanged or had escaped.

Schmeiser reported that his cousin Captain Michael Schmeiser had been taken prisoner as had nearly all of the soldiers from the York county section.

"That is, those who were not killed or wounded."

"The men had been spread out so it seemed like no one could get through," Schmeiser recalled.

The Hessians Came
"There were about 400 in the fort and then the rest were put out in concentric rings behind earthworks around the fort. The next thing we knew the Hessians, dressed in green, came out of the woods where they could not have been. "They were shouting 'Yonkee, Yonkee' and the sun sparkled from their bayonets."

"They kept coming toward us and the next thing they were over us. Well, the men just let go and started running everywhere they could. I saw Jacob Barnitz drop and it looked like he'd been shot through both legs. Captain McCarter got hit in the chest and I saw him fall down and start bleeding from the mouth."

"The men jammed into the troops behind them and they got scared and ran too, back toward the fort. They tell me that after the fort got so full of men that nobody could even move there were men running, leaping up against the sides of the fort attempting to get in, and other men inside pushing them back because it was so crowded. "When the British marched up there wasn't anything to do but surrender. The place was a madhouse, with the men milling around and fighting to get not only inside the fort but into the middle of the crowd where they figured they would be safest."

Andrew and Schmeiser both sat a long time, contemplating the tale. Both wondered if Americans would ever learn to stand and take it, or whether they would ever stop running.

There seemed to be no army, no spirit, nothing by General Washington and he seemed such a stupid big farmer without wit or wisdom. Neither dared put it in words, neither dared admit it even to himself, but in a tight dark little lump inside each was something that said there could never be a free America (To be continued next week)
